6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

8 BRODIE M. LAMB,

9 Petitioner,

10 v.

11 MICHAEL OBENLAND,

12 Respondent.

Case No. C17-319-RAJ-JPD

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
SANCTIONS SHOULD NOT BE IMPOSED

13
14 This is a federal habeas action brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. On August 7, 2017, this
15 Court issued an Order directing respondent to submit all relevant portions of the state court
16 record, including a copy of the audio recording of petitioner's guilty plea hearing, not later than 17 September 8, 2017. (Dkt. 19.) This Order was issued after the Court discovered that, while it
18 had received respondent's notice of submission of the relevant state court record in conjunction 19 with respondent's answer to petitioner's federal habeas petition, it had never received the actual
20 documents referenced in the notice. To date, the Court has received no response to its Order
21 directing respondent to submit the state court record.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY SANCTIONS
SHOULD NOT BE IMPOSED - 1

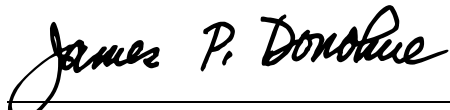

1 Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS as follows:

2 (1) Respondent shall SHOW CAUSE within 14 days of the date on which this Order
3 is signed why sanctions should not be imposed, in accordance with LCR 11(c), for his failure to
4 respond in any fashion to this Court's prior Order.

5 (2) Petitioner's amended federal habeas petition (Dkt. 5) is STRICKEN from the 6 Court's calendar as the Court cannot proceed without the documents referenced above. The 7 Court will re-note the petition for consideration after it receives a response to this Order.

8 (3) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order to petitioner, to counsel for 9 respondent, and to the Honorable Richard A. Jones.

10 DATED this 15th day of September, 2017.
